Re: Daniele International, Inc. v. Consorzio del Prosciutto di San Daniele

Dear Gerry:

To confirm our telephone conversation, the Consorzio does not object to the changes you proposed in the language of the proposed settlement agreement. The Consorzio also does not object to the revised Exhibit A you faxed me yesterday, provided that you insert "Not Drawn To Scale" on the Exhibit since the size of "Daniele Inc." is greater than one-fourth the size of the "Presidential" trademark. As you and I discussed, the Consorzio's not objecting to Exhibit A should not be taken as a representation that Daniele should use "Presidential" as a trademark or that Daniele will be able to register "Presidential" as a trademark.

I therefore enclose a revised draft, which reflects the changes you proposed. As I told you, I have moved to Paragraph 2 the provision in Paragraph 5 of the previous draft setting forth the requirements for Daniele's corporate/fictitious name. This change is intended to be editorial only, not substantive.

After you have reviewed the agreement, please call me as soon as possible to let me know if the agreement is OK or if there is a problem. Assuming the changes reflect our agreement, please fax me one copy of the agreement (together with the revised Exhibit A) initialed and signed by Daniele. Once you fax me a signed copy, I will arrange for the agreement to be initialed and signed by the Consorzio.

You said that when the agreement was signed by Daniele, you would send me an original together with the check called for under the agreement. I will let you know tomorrow to whom the check should be made.

Sincerely yours,

Michael H. Selter
